Northrop Grumman Future Technical Leaders (FTL) Program

At Northrop Grumman, we’ve developed the Future Technical Leaders (FTL) Program - a professional development opportunity aimed at identifying and investing in Northrop Grumman’s next generation of technologists, engineers, architects and leaders.

Our FTL Program is seeking talented MS and PhD 2016-2017 graduates interested in learning more about our exclusive three year rotational program working side-by-side with senior technical management. It's the chance of a lifetime—one that only a few receive. To be eligible for the FTL Program, you must be at the top of your class in a Master’s or Doctoral program in the following majors. Due to the classified nature of the work, you must be a U.S. citizen and able to obtain a security clearance. Majors of interest include:

- Analytics
- Mathematics
- Physics
- Health/Bio IS/IT
- Computer Science
- Computer Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Information Systems/Information Technology
- Cyber Security & Information Assurance
- Aerospace Engineering (systems)
- Systems Engineering (technical)
- Operations Research
- Bio Informatics/Neuroscience
- Electrical & Computer Engineering
- Materials Science

We’re seeking leaders who aren’t afraid to push technology farther, dream bigger, and make the world safer than ever. Let’s do the work that matters – together.
